To mask or not to mask?

Because of the virus, our society has become locked in a fierce debate. Should individuals be required to wear masks in public? This debate has scientific, political, legal, constitutional, and religious dimensions. But in the midst of all the claims and counterclaims, we still have to decide what to do; both as individuals and as a church.

It's worth pointing out that science will not settle the question. At the beginning of the pandemic, scientists and public officials told us not to wear masks. Then they changed their minds and said we should. Some studies show that wearing a mask limits the flow of airborne particles. Other studies also show that wearing a mask may actually *increase* your risk of contracting the virus. Regardless of which scientific report you favor, you still have to manage the risk of getting sick versus all the other risks of life.

Believers care most about what God says regarding daily life. The 5th commandment says, "You shall not murder." With these words, God forbids us from harming our neighbor in his body. Instead, we should help them in every bodily need. This very same commandment forbids us from harming ourselves. We do not throw away God's gift of life by committing suicide. We do not misuse or abuse alcohol or drugs. God forbids us to hurt or harm ourselves in our bodies. What's the difference between these statements?

"For my health, you must wear a mask."

"For my health, you must give blood."

"For my health, you must donate a kidney."

All of them dictate the actions of another person based on my self interest. Certainly wearing a mask is less of a burden than donating a kidney. But not everyone can stand wearing a mask. Some activities make it impossible. Some people physically can't do it.

Christians want to seek the good of their neighbor. They will "consider others better than themselves" and "look out for the interest of others and not just for their own interests." (Philippians 2:3,4) But this behavior cannot be mandated. Would the church really say, "Unless you start looking out for your neighbor, you may not come to communion"? Should individual believers admonish others by saying, "You had better start looking out for my interests!"?

As soon as the church mandates acts of Christian love, we have destroyed their nature as acts of love. Now those same actions become grudging obedience, unwillingly given. Christian love cannot be demanded. But it can be urged and encouraged. Even more important, it can be given. And that's what Christ calls each of us to do. Love one another, even if you don't see eye to eye on masks. Give each other some space. Try to assume the best of others, not the worst.

All of us are trying to do our best in a trying circumstance. Please show kindness and patience to your fellow believers.

Pastor's/Elder's report: Pastor has been conducting Shut-in visits for those that have requested.

Setting up the Christmas Tree and decorating the church will be on Saturday, November 28 at 9 a.m. (Everyone welcome to help)

The main tree will be set up in the entry way this year with two new "pencil" trees to be placed on either side of the altar. The expenses will be covered by the Fellowship Committee.

The Children's Christmas Eve Program will be on December 24 at 5:30 p.m. for the children's parents and grandparents only due to the limited seating capacity. A second worship service will be held at 7 p.m. that evening. If need be, seating will be set up in the church basement.

Communion will be held at the foot of the altar steps on November 15 and distributed in the same fashion as it is currently being done.

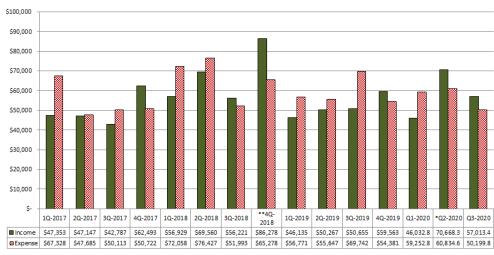

The New Year's Eve Service will be on December 31 at 7 p.m. at Immanuel. There will be NO New Year Day's Service.

Trustee's report: Larry Murphy will be contracted for snow removal once again. The deck on the Parsonage will be addressed next spring.

Sarah Forbes will be contracted for cleaning the church. Tidy Tightwads was scheduled, however, due to unforeseen staffing changes, they retracted their agreement.

Other Business: Concerns regarding masking have been brought to the attention of the Council. As this is a difficult subject with individual's comfort levels varying, we pray that God will watch over all of us and keep us safe during this difficult time.

Next Meeting:

December 4 at 7 p.m.

We encourage anyone interested in what we do, to please join us. Our group is back to gathering for our monthly meetings and it feels right. We decorated the church for fall and if I must say so, I think it looks good. This time of year reminds us of the harvest and all the blessing God has bestowed on us.

For our October meeting, we were pleased to have Kate Tohal, a representative from MLC. Her presentation was informative and interesting about the applied structures at MLC in dealing with the Covid virus. She was appreciative of the food our congregation collected for the college food shelf and stated, the students depend on this service. Also, there was a Thrivent Action Team approved for this food shelf drive and the Ladies Aid was able to purchase $250 worth of food and other items for the college food shelf.

For the month of November, we will decide on officers for next year and will be looking into the program for the upcoming year.

In December we generally sponsor the staff appreciation dinner, but we regretfully need to postpone due to Covid.

As a faith based group we welcome interest to our group, come and visit us. As a group we try to promote activities within our church family to get to know each other a little better.

God's blessing to each of you through the Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

Say Merry Christmas with a small gift... Our MLC Adopt a Student, Emily Ash, is practice teaching at Divine Savior Academy in Doral, Florida until December 18th. After the Christmas break, in 2021, she will be practice teaching again at a different location. We would like to send Emily a Christmas gift to help with her travels and living expenses. Anyone wishing to contribute can place their donation into the Christmas box in the entry designated for Emily. We will send the gift after December 13.

Choir has started up again for the season with Chrissy as "director" – We're extending an invitation to anyone who would like to join. We are meeting Monday nights at 6:30 for a quick 30 minute practice.

Our focus is singing (songs within our level of expertise) to bring praise to God's name, while keeping the safety of our congregation in mind. Let's not let Covid-19 stop us from gathering and praising God together. Where there is a will, there is a way!

We look forward to contributing some variety to our special services. Any questions, let Chrissy know.
