Student Teacher

Mrs. Nichole LaGrow is joining us this year as a student teacher in Mr. Holz's classroom. She is completing her Master's in the Art of Teaching with a K-6 Teaching License through Concordia St. Paul and currently serves as faculty mentor at Martin Luther College.

I am very happy to be at Immanuel Grace for the first half of the year to complete my student teaching experience. The faculty, staff, students, and families of IGLS have been very welcoming and encouraging. My first few weeks at school have been a blessing.

I deeply love learning and actually have an advanced degree in literature and history, which are my favorite subjects to teach. I hope that my excitement about learning will be contagious. I look forward to learning with the 6-8 class as we explore the subjects together.

My husband, Dr. Martin LaGrow, is a faculty member and assistant football coach at MLC. My youngest stepson, Taylor LaGrow, is a junior at MVL. When we find time in our busy schedules to enjoy a day as a family, we like to visit a state park and go on a long walk with our dogs. When we can't be outside, we play board games or have a family movie night.

Favorite Bible Verse: Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:22-23
